

Kusama Rising

Verse 1:

In July 2022, the chains came alive,
Kusama's heart in a digital drive.
OpenGov rising, a fresh chapter's call,
Breaking down walls, no hierarchy at all.
Parachain dreams, a dozen to soar,
Developers pushing, wanting to explore.
In the land of the wild, where tech's untamed,
KSM swings, in the market's game.

Chorus:

Oh, Kusama, bold and free,
Wild cousin in this blockchain sea.
Ride the waves of July's thrill,
In this future, we build and fulfill.

Verse 2:

Statemine's blessing, parachains ignite,
Mogwai and Snow dance in the light.
Common-good chains, a shared frontier,
A decentralized world, so near.
Calamari whispers secrets to keep,
Shiden's smart contracts, dreams that leap.
Volatile tides, KSM's plight,
Yet investors hold, through day and night.

Chorus:

Oh, Kusama, bold and free,
Wild cousin in this blockchain sea.
Ride the waves of July's thrill,
In this future, we build and fulfill.

Bridge:

Asynchronous Backing, futures we mold,
In Kusama's hands, wonders unfold.
Polkadot echoes, in the paths we find,
A decentralized song, in the heart and mind.

Outro:

July 2022, a time to remember,
Kusama's spirit, an eternal ember.
Oh, Kusama, bold and free,
Forever wild, in our blockchain legacy.
