

Kusama Rising

Verse 1:

In February '24, a new dawn's rise,
Kusama's dream, a fire in the skies.
BEEFY bridges building pathways wide,
Connecting chains, a seamless ride.
Parachains auction, time to realign,
Agile Coretime, four weeks to find.
Resources shift, like tides they flow,
In this digital sea, let our vision grow.

Chorus:

Revolution's calling, echoes in the air,
Kusama's spirit, a world to share.
Pioneers of change, under the stars,
Blockchain's future, written in our hearts.

Verse 2:

Snowbridge and Hyperbridge, secure and strong,
EVM chains where they belong.
Polkadot's canary, leading the flight,
Through innovative days and vibrant nights.
Communities gather, Crypto Nights ignite,
Sharing knowledge, with open sight.
The heartbeat of Web 3.0,
In Kusama's world, we boldly go.

Chorus:

Revolution's calling, echoes in the air,
Kusama's spirit, a world to share.
Pioneers of change, under the stars,
Blockchain's future, written in our hearts.

Bridge:

Interlinked pathways, crossing time and space,
Kusama's vision, an embraced embrace.
Innovation whispers, in the winds of change,
In February '24, nothing stays the same.

Chorus:

Revolution's calling, echoes in the air,
Kusama's spirit, a world to share.
Pioneers of change, under the stars,
Blockchain's future, written in our hearts.
