

'24 Kusama

Verse 1:

In April '24, Kusama soared,
Breaking chains, rewriting lore,
Agile Coretime, a vision's flight,
Sold out the cores, igniting the night.
Dynamic change, no slots to bind,
Opens doors for the agile mind,
Turing's dreams of DeFi rise,
Cross-chain bridges reach new skies.

Chorus:

Oh, Kusama, canary's call,
In the blockchain, you're standing tall.
Guide us through the night once more,
April '24, we hear your roar.

Verse 2:

Asynchronous Backing on the brink,
Faster blocks, with one thought, we sync.
KSM's journey, climbing high,
Bullish trends with wings to fly.
Community's voice, a governance tale,
Assets cross the Polkadot trail.
In this realm of code and dreams,
Kusama leads where the future beams.

Chorus:

Oh, Kusama, canary's call,
In the blockchain, you're standing tall.
Guide us through the night once more,
April '24, we hear your roar.

Outro:

Forging paths with every stride,
In your hands, we choose to glide.
Kusama's echo, the world will know,
On this journey, forever we'll go.
