

Kusama Rising

Verse 1:

In October 2024, a canary in flight,
Kusama's wings stretch wide, soaring into the light.
Governance evolves, 1,500 strong,
Transparent and bold, where we all belong.
Heated debates on DeFi and NFTs,
A network alive, with new possibilities.

Chorus:

Kusama's heartbeat, innovation's call,
A beacon of change, built by us all.
With a spirit unyielding, and a vision so bright,
The early bird's song, echoes through the night.

Verse 2:

Parachains auction slots, dreams take their stand,
Turing Network rises, a future unplanned.
Asynchronous backing, version 2.0,
Scalability leaps, as transactions flow.
KSM soars high on market waves,
A token of progress, no one could enslave.

Chorus:

Kusama's heartbeat, innovation's call,
A beacon of change, built by us all.
With a spirit unyielding, and a vision so bright,
The early bird's song, echoes through the night.

Outro:

Towards 2025, we set our course true,
Scalability, growth, in a vibrant hue.
Kusama leads on, with courage and might,
The early bird's song, still soaring high.
In October 2024, our future took flight.
