

Kusama Rising

Verse 1:

In September 2020, the canaries sing,
Emerging strong from Polkadot's wing.
A playground bold, for the daring souls,
Innovation thrives where Kusama rolls.
Governance takes its rightful stage,
Testing the limits, turning the page.
Proposals fly, progress aligns,
A thriving land where the future shines.

Chorus:

Oh, Kusama, you rise and soar,
A canary loud in blockchain's core.
New heights reached, in moons of gold,
A beacon bright as dreams unfold.

Verse 2:

Parachains racing, a fervent dance,
Hackusama's call, a daring prance.
Unique visions, framed in code,
In this sandbox, the world is told.
KSM climbs, a soaring flight,
From the depths to dizzying heights.
Developers dream, in networks vast,
Building a future meant to last.

Chorus:

Oh, Kusama, you rise and soar,
A canary loud in blockchain's core.
New heights reached, in moons of gold,
A beacon bright as dreams unfold.

Bridge:

With Gavin's vision, on wings of change,
A vibrant chorus in blockchain's range.
Interlinked paths, new frontiers found,
A testing ground where hope abounds.

Chorus:

Oh, Kusama, you rise and soar,
A canary loud in blockchain's core.
New heights reached, in moons of gold,
A beacon bright as dreams unfold.

Outro:

Oh, Kusama, fly high,
In the boundless blockchain sky.
September's song in memories' vault,
As the future we exalt.
