Verse 1:

In February 2025, the canary sings,
Kusama's flight, the dawn it brings.
OpenGov whispers, democracy calls,
Token voices echo through these walls.
Parachains rising, new worlds to explore,
Health, carbon credits, and much more.
Quantum resistance, AI art in bloom,
Developers dance to a thriving tune.

Riding high on blockchain dreams,
Kusama's light in vibrant beams.
Innovation soars, hearts ignite,
In February's triumphant flight.

Transaction speeds in tales untold.

Flourishing trades as time goes by.

Kusama's promise, a pioneering space.
With future sights on endless streams,
Real-world visions from digital dreams.

Riding high on blockchain dreams,
Kusama's light in vibrant beams.
Innovation soars, hearts ignite,
In February's triumphant flight.
