

Call Kusama's

Verse 1:

In December '24, we hear the call,
Kusama's light shines, bright for all.
Bridges built where worlds unite,
Snowbridge rides the ether's flight.
Parachains soar, Moonbeam's rise,
Evrloot plays where the future lies.
140,000 beats a second, a tech ballet,
Agile hands mold the clay.

Chorus:

Oh, Kusama, with wings so wide,
Canary sings where the bold abide.
In a world of chains, you break the mold,
With dreams and whispers of the untold.

Verse 2:

Governance shapes in community's hands,
A rewrite of futures, of uncharted lands.
Tokens surge, a fiery dance,
A crypto tide, a second chance.
Developers weave, crafting dreams,
Polkadot's canvas, painted schemes.
Treasures vast, the tales unfold,
In Kusama's arms, the future bold.

Chorus:

Oh, Kusama, with wings so wide,
Canary sings where the bold abide.
In a world of chains, you break the mold,
With dreams and whispers of the untold.

Outro:

December's end, a new dawn in sight,
Kusama rises, a beacon of light.
In blockchain realms, where legends lie,
A future unfolds, reaching for the sky.
