

Kusama Rising

Verse 1:

February 2021, a new dawn breaks,
Kusama's leap like a wild heart shakes.
700 strong, validators rise,
In the realm of blockchain skies.
Governance shifts, a collective's voice,
NPoS leads the way, we've made our choice.
KSM climbing, bullish light,
From humble roots, we take flight.

Chorus:

Kusama's heart beats, in a world unknown,
A wild cousin where dreams are sown.
Parachain whispers, auctions call,
A multi-chain future in February's thrall.

Verse 2:

Slots open wide, innovation flows,
Projects converge where the wild wind blows.
Lower barriers, a welcoming hand,
Building new worlds, where visions expand.
Technical strides, the foundation laid,
Decentralized dreams, from which we're made.
In the pulse of change, developers bloom,
Kusama's future, dispelling gloom.

Chorus:

Kusama's heart beats, in a world unknown,
A wild cousin where dreams are sown.
Parachain whispers, auctions call,
A multi-chain future in February's thrall.

Outro:

February 2021, a turning point clear,
Kusama's journey, we hold dear.
Together we rise, we boldly run,
In the endless race towards the sun.
