

Kusama Rising

Verse 1:

In August '24, the frontier of dreams,
Kusama reigns where the blockchain gleams.
OpenGov rises, new voices take flight,
Weighted voting, a beacon of light.
Nebula shines, the code breaks through,
Parachains grow, like seeds in the dew.
DeFi Hub and QuantumLeap's call,
A future unfolds at Kusama's hall.

Chorus:

In the heart of revolution, where the wild ones play,
Kusama's dreamers light the way.
Governance, freedom in the air,
A blockchain dance, we dare, we dare.

Verse 2:

Tokens hold steady through turbulent seas,
€17.95, a tale of beliefs.
In the pulse of auctions, a million staked strong,
Community builds as we march on.
Cross-chain threads weave the web,
Developer hands shape what's ahead.
Karura and Moonriver's bright spark,
Kusama guides through innovation's dark.

Chorus:

In the heart of revolution, where the wild ones play,
Kusama's dreamers light the way.
Governance, freedom in the air,
A blockchain dance, we dare, we dare.

Outro:

The future's edge, with tech in its hand,
Kusama stands, where we understand.
A launchpad of hope, a proving ground,
In August '24, we hear the sound.
