Sky Kusama

Verse 1:

In the heart of July, twenty-twenty's sky,
Kusama soared, a canary's cry,
Building paths for blockchain dreams,
With parachains in streaming beams.
Community voices, loud and clear,
Governance held by KSM's sphere,
Referenda shaping the way,
Decentralized future, here to stay.

Chorus:

Oh, in July 2020, the dawn of a new day,
Kusama's promise, never fades away,
A testbed for the brave and bold,
In this blockchain story, dreams unfold.

Verse 2:

Security flows through nine hundred strong,
Validators in harmony's song,
The groundwork laid for auctions wide,
In Kusama's realm, where visions bide.
For developers seeking a fertile ground,
In Kusama's light, hope is found,
New teams rise with dreams on fire,
Polkadot's shadow, their desire.

Chorus:

Oh, in July 2020, the dawn of a new day,
Kusama's promise, never fades away,
A testbed for the brave and bold,
In this blockchain story, dreams unfold.

Outro:

A spark in the market's wild embrace,
KSM leads the pioneering race,
The future of tech, a canvas wide,
Kusama's journey, a fearless stride.
