Might Kusama

Verse 1:

In the shadow of Polkadot's might,
Kusama soared by evening light.
February 2020, in bold we came,
Crafting governance in a daring game.
Token voices find their way,
In chains of on-chain sway.

Chorus:

Canary takes flight, in a sky of code,
Parachains align, a blockchain ode.
We break through the chains,
With courage that reigns.
February marked our rise,
Kusama's wings reach the skies.

Verse 2:

A universe of parachains unfurled,
A new blockchain world is swirled.
Stability and growth, hand in hand,
Innovations in our experimental land.
KSM enters the crypto scene,
With fire and dreams unforeseen.

Chorus:

Canary takes flight, in a sky of code,
Parachains align, a blockchain ode.
We break through the chains,
With courage that reigns.
February marked our rise,
Kusama's wings reach the skies.

Bridge:

Developers ignite a blazing flame,
With Hackusama, they stake their claim.
Kusama, a ground to pioneer,
In February's light, we persevere.

Chorus:

Canary takes flight, in a sky of code,
Parachains align, a blockchain ode.
We break through the chains,
With courage that reigns.
February marked our rise,
Kusama's wings reach the skies.

Outro:

Navigating heights yet untold,
Kusama's future, brave and bold.

February 2020, the beginning we trust,
In blockchain's dust, our dreams combust.

February 2020, the beginning we trust,
In blockchain's dust, our dreams combust.
